SUMMARY

Galenki Army Barracks Slavyanka RW is located immediately west of Galenki (Figure 1). In addition to its function as a barracks and storage area, it appears to provide support for the Galenki Earth Satellite Tracking Facility, located immediately south of the barracks area.

The installation covers approximately 300 acres and contains 4 administration buildings, 11 barracks, 9 probable barracks, 23 quarters-type housing units, 20 storage buildings, 5 vehicle sheds, 2 possible vehicle sheds, 5 unidentified structures, and 73 support buildings. It also contains 2 motor pools, 1 small-arms firing range, and 2 athletic fields (Figures 2 and 3).

The installation has been covered on KEYHOLE missions of interpretable quality between [REDACTED]

Comparative analysis indicates that the installation was present on [REDACTED] coverage, but poor quality photography precluded detailed interpretation. No significant change in facilities is noted and the installation appears to be active and occupied on all coverage.
